

KNOCKOUT DROPS

FACTSHEET

Hometown: New York City, New York

Music: Power Pop

Latest CD: Killed By The Lights

Latest Single: Wrong Side of Love

Members/Instruments:

Chris Champion, Lead Vocals

Tom Licameli, Lead Guitar, backing vocals

Philip Mastrangelo, Bass Guitar

Vinny Cimino, Drums

Record Label: Circus Clone Records

Points of Note:

Chris Champion writes songs that give the listener a true looking glass into relationships, addictions and the notion of redemption. Champion's vocals are powerful and sobering and the subject matter addressed is both riveting and relevant. The band's live performances are exhilarating and theatrically entertaining. Face Magazine wrote, "The band creates solid, if not spectacular music...the door is open for them to easily succeed and standout."

Additional Data:

The Drops have sold out venues in New York over the years including Irving Plaza, Bowery Ballroom and Knitting Factory. In the supporting artist category, the Drops have opened for Soul Asylum, Pete Dinklage, Violent Femmes, Semisonic. In 2004 the Drops toured nationally and internationally including the UK, Finland & Russia.
